harassment(s) including names and addresses of witnesses, if any which the complainant believes to be true and accurate.

5. REDRESSAL PROCESS

5.1 Conciliation

Before the ICC initiates an inquiry, the complainant may request the ICC to take steps to resolve the matter through conciliation provided no monetary settlement shall be made as basis of conciliation. If a settlement has been so arrived, the ICC shall record the same and forward the same to the Employer and provide copies of the settlement to the aggrieved individual and the respondent. In such cases, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the ICC.

5.2 Inquiry

- (i) In a case where a settlement is not feasible or cannot be arrived at through Conciliation (ref clause 6.1 above), the ICC will conduct an inquiry into the complaint. Additionally, an inquiry may also be initiated if the aggrieved person informs the ICC that any terms of settlement (ref clause 6.1 above) have not been complied with by the respondent.
- (ii) The ICC within 7 (seven) working days of receiving the complaint shall forward one copy thereof to the respondent for obtaining a response.
- (iii) The respondent within 10 (ten) working days of receiving the complaint shall file his/her reply to the complaint along with a list of supporting documents, names, and addresses of witnesses.
- (iv) The ICC shall consider the reply from the respondent and initiate an inquiry. The complainant or the respondent to the complaint shall not be allowed to bring any legal practitioner to represent them at any stage of the proceedings before the ICC. ICC shall hear both the complainant and the respondent on a date(s) intimated to them in advance and the principles of natural justice will be followed accordingly.
- (v) In the event of failure to attend a personal hearing before the ICC by the complainant or the respondent on three consecutive dates (intimated in advance), the ICC shall terminate the inquiry proceedings or give an ex-parte decision. However, the ICC shall serve a notice in writing to the party (ies), 15 (fifteen) days in advance, before such termination or the ex-parte order.
- (vi) The inquiry process shall be completed maximum within the period of 90 (ninety) days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- (vii) The ICC within 10 (ten) days from the date of completion of inquiry shall provide a report of its findings to the CPO and Director & General Manager and such report shall also be forthwith made available to the complainant and respondent.
- (viii) Where the conduct of Sexual Harassment amounts to a specific offense under the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) or under any other law; it shall be the duty of ICC to immediately inform the complainant of his/her right to initiate action in accordance with law with the appropriate authority and to give advice and guidance regarding the same. Any such action or proceedings initiated shall be in addition to proceedings initiated and /or any action taken under this Policy.

5.3 Interim relief

During the pendency of the inquiry, on a written request made by the complainant, the committee may recommend to the employer to:

- ✦ Transfer the aggrieved individual or the respondent to any other workplace; or

- ✦ Grant leave to the aggrieved individual of a maximum 3 months, in addition to the leave he/she would be otherwise entitled; or
- ✦ Grant such other relief to the aggrieved individual as may be found to be appropriate; or
- ✦ Restraint the respondent from reporting on the work performance of the complainant.

Once the recommendation of interim relief is implemented, the CPO shall inform the committee regarding the same.

5.4 Prohibition on disclosure of information

This policy and the law prohibit any person including ICC Members from publishing, communicating, or making known to the public, press, and media in any manner, the contents of the complaint, the identity, and addresses of the aggrieved person, respondent, and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, or recommendations of the ICC during the proceedings under the provisions of the Act. Any violation thereto shall also be subject to applicable disciplinary action as outlined in the Employee Handbook. Further, the CPO shall impose monetary sanctions as per provisions of the Act and Rules.

5.5 Protection to Complainant

The Company is committed to ensuring that no employee who brings forward a harassment concern is subject to any form of reprisal. Any reprisal will be subject to disciplinary action. The Company will ensure that the victim or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment.

However, anyone who abuses the procedure (for example, by maliciously making an allegation knowing it to be untrue and/or producing any forged or misleading document) will be subject to applicable disciplinary action.

5.6 Appeal

Any person aggrieved by the recommendation of ICC may prefer an appeal under the relevant provisions of the Act and Rules.

5.7 Disciplinary Proceedings

Pursuant to the written recommendation of CPO on the basis of the report and findings of ICC and subject to the final outcome of the appeal proceedings, if any, (ref. clause 6.6 above) necessary disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against the respondent in terms of the applicable provisions of Employee Handbook of the Company.

5.8 Savings and Repeal

Kalyani Cast-Tech Limited is committed to ensuring that no employee who brings forward a harassment concern is subject to any form of reprisal. Any reprisal will be subject to disciplinary action. Tirshil AlgoComm Technologies Limited will ensure that victims or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment.

However, anyone who abuses the procedure with established malicious intent will be penalized as outlined above.
